Delta Airlines IAH Terminal operates out of Terminal A of George Bush Intercontinental Airport (IAH) in Houston, Texas. Passengers can enjoy a variety of facilities at this terminal, including check-in counters, self-service kiosks, and, for eligible travelers, access to Delta Sky Club lounges. Along with lots of sitting and charging stations, Terminal A provides a wide range of shopping and dining alternatives to enhance the trip experience. The terminal has good connectivity to other parts of the airport and provides easy access to baggage claim and ground transportation. Delta's operations at IAH ensure a practical and efficient travel experience for both local and international flights.
