Neurology test price can vary depending on the type of test and your location. These tests help detect and diagnose conditions affecting the brain, spine, and nerves. If you're looking to understand the cost and make an informed choice, here's a quick guide to help you compare options near you.

Key Points: Prices can range from ₹2200 to ₹3000 or more, depending on the test and facility. Location-based pricing – Costs may differ across cities and diagnostic centers. Advanced equipment and expert neurologist interpretation may influence the price. Home sample collection and online reports may be available at no extra cost. Insurance coverage may apply for certain neurological diagnostic tests.

Conclusion: Knowing the neurology test price near you can help you find the right diagnostic center at a reasonable cost. Compare test packages, verify credentials, and check for any available discounts before booking. Early diagnosis through timely testing ensures better management of neurological conditions.
