MacUncle CSV to vCard Converter is a reliable tool for converting CSV contact files into vCard (.vcf) format on macOS. It ensures accurate field mapping and data preservation while supporting vCard versions 2.1, 3.0, and 4.0. The tool lets you create a single VCF file for all contacts or separate files for each one. With its simple interface, batch conversion support, and offline processing, it's ideal for importing contacts into Gmail, iCloud, Apple Contacts, Outlook, and mobile devices — quickly and securely.

Key Features of MacUncle CSV to vCard Converter

Accurate Conversion: Converts CSV contacts to vCard (.vcf) format without data loss.

Multiple vCard Versions: Supports vCard 2.1, 3.0, and 4.0 formats.

Single or Multiple VCF Files: Create one combined VCF or separate files per contact.

Field Mapping: Manually map CSV columns to vCard fields for precise results.

Batch Conversion: Convert multiple contacts or entire lists at once.

Offline & Secure: Works entirely on your Mac without internet or data upload.

Cross-Platform Compatibility: Output vCards can be imported into Gmail, iCloud, Apple Contacts, Outlook, Android, and iPhone.

User-Friendly Interface: Simple and guided steps suitable for all users.

Free Demo Available: Test the tool by converting limited contacts before upgrading
