If you are finding it hard to get pregnant naturally, focusing on some scientific methods is the only way out. There are different types of IVF plans available and IUI is one of them. Before you jump into IUI costs in Delhi, it is time to learn more about the intrauterine insemination procedure. Here, the sperm is directly placed into the uterus with the help of a small catheter. The main goal is to improve fertilisation chances by increasing healthy sperm count. Our team from Femmenest is happy to offer the best IUI treatment plan.

Looking at the cost:

Before you jump straight into the IUI process, we would like to talk about the IUI cost in Delhi. It is hard to pinpoint any number as it varies from one patient to another. Overall, you are expected to spend around 15,000 rupees to 20,000 rupees for each IUI treatment plan. The number will vary based on the complexity of the case.
